- 2. On September 7, 2023, Monica Bermudez entered her appearance as counsel for defendant Jose Angel Beltran-Chaidez. His former attorney withdrew following the government's motion of a potential conflict of interest based on the joint representation of Beltran-Chaidez and Defendant Calderon-Campos by two members of the same law firm.
- 3. In light of Ms. Bermudez's need to review discovery and have meaningful discussions with her client and the government regarding a potential disposition, by this stipulation, the parties request one last continuance in this matter. It is requested that the status conference currently set for September 20, 2023, be continued to December 6, 2023, before U.S. Magistrate Sheila K. Oberto, or the Court's earliest convenience, and to exclude time from calculation under the Speedy Trial Act between September 20, 2023, and December 6, 2023. On December 6, 2023, the parties will set the matter for trial or, in the alternative, enter into a plea agreement.
- 4. Further, Daniel Harralson and his client, Antonio Beltran-Chaidez, are relatively new to the case, having initially appeared on July 11, 2023.
  - 5. The parties agree and stipulate, and request that the Court find the following:
  - 1,656 pages of Bates-stamped material has been provided to the defense in this a) matter. This material consists primarily of wiretap intercepts and data, reports of investigation, photographs, recordings of post-arrest interviews, and defendants' criminal histories.
    - b) Plea offers have been made to all of the defendants.
  - Counsel for defendants desire additional time to review discovery, consult with c) their clients, conduct investigation and research related to the charges, consider plea offers, engage in plea negotiations, and to otherwise prepare for trial.
  - d) Counsel for defendants believe that failure to grant the above-requested continuance would deny them the reasonable time necessary for effective preparation, taking into account the exercise of due diligence.
  - e) Based on the above-stated findings, the ends of justice served by continuing the case as requested outweigh the interest of the public and the defendants in a trial within the original date prescribed by the Speedy Trial Act.
    - For the purpose of computing time under the Speedy Trial Act, 18 U.S.C. § 3161, f)
